

THROUGH YOUR EYES

BY SUZANNE EICHMAN

Through your eyes I see the stars so bright,
the moon, and the darkness of night.

I see butterflies and flowers
that dance in the breeze.

I see the wind as it blows and the leaves fall,
the newness of snow, the glory of it all.

All of this so day to day, but through your eyes it all seems new.

So when life starts to get me down,
and things start to give me trouble...
through your eyes I'll look, my child.

For you see life like no other.

Gather Together

Wouldn't it be fun to imagine these children in a preschool class together someday? Or getting to play on the same soccer team? It was for only a brief snapshot that we were able to gather them all together before they crawled off to bigger things in life. And yet, wherever they end up going, there is a common thread that will always tie them together. The thread woven by their parents' courageous decision to choose life. The thread God was using when He knit them together in their mothers' wombs. The thread that is strengthened by your support.

Your financial gifts serve as a unique way to instill hope in the lives of the brave women and men we serve. As you begin to gather together during this season of Thanksgiving, please consider a gift of $500, $250, $100 or any amount so that, together, we can continue strengthening these ties. The smiling faces of these babies are just a few of the beautiful lives you influence through your friendship.

For HIS Unborn,
