Happy FATHER'S Day

A Father's Day Story

Before coming into contact with Alpha Center, my life looked very different. My girlfriend and I were drinking a lot. We had a somewhat difficult relationship. I never gave much thought about my future and was just living life, doing whatever I wanted. Then, when my girlfriend had a positive pregnancy test, I was absolutely terrified.

As someone who hadn't spent much time around babies or young children, I felt unprepared stepping into fatherhood. My family was shocked and my parents were disappointed that I wasn't married, but they were still very supportive.

We didn't know what to do next, so we reached out to Alpha Center. The first time we came in, we weren't even 100% positive we were pregnant. The staff welcomed us with open arms, no judgment. They confirmed the pregnancy and we had our first ultrasound. We knew for sure we were having a baby and we saw our daughter for the first time. Seeing this tiny baby on the screen was life-changing.

I had no experience taking care of a child, so everything was new. We began to take the Earn While You Learn classes and learned so much. I learned even more from my mentorship with Kevin in the Fatherhood program. Kevin has been an incredible mentor, walking with me through the fears, the unknowns, and helping me become the father I want to be.

My daughter was born in November of 2025. Today, everything feels different. I am very excited to be a father now. For the first time in my life, I feel a sense of purpose. I want nothing more than to be a good dad and provide a good life for my daughter.

Alpha Center didn't just help us through a pregnancy, they helped me find my direction, my confidence, and my purpose in being a dad. I'm still learning every day, but I'm showing up, and that feels like the greatest gift of all.

I wanted to share my story to encourage other guys who might be in the same place, but I would like to remain anonymous. I also thank the supporters of Alpha Center. Your generosity and belief in Alpha Center is truly changing lives and giving fathers like me a chance to succeed.
